A very brief history of the PSU

The ULPSU was initially formed as the Postgraduate Students' Association (PSA) in September 2002. Since that time, it has directly represented every postgraduate student that has passed through the doors of UL. Initially a much smaller operation, the PSA continued to develop and expand throughout the 2000s. The PSA became the Postgraduate Students' Union (PSU) in the academic year 2012/13 and has continued to increase its operations.

In October 2018, the PSU voluntarily participated in the University of Limerick Quality Review process. The first recommendation of the Quality Review Team was that the PSU remain autonomous.
